Some famous quotes...

On the most important attributes in a Man...

I want my Man to be kind, loving and caring.

Surely that's not too much to ask of a millionaire!

Household chores...

I'm VERY good at house-keeping. I leave the man. I keep the house!

Most important priorities in Life...

My third husband said it was him or the cat. I missed him, just a little!

😊 *'To truly laugh, U must be able to take your pain, and play with it'.

*Charlie Chaplin. Laughter and happiness - it's totally infectious!

😊 So Suicide Prevention is NOT just 'catching' those who are about to fall from a cliff, bridge, high rise...

😊 Try spreading some happiness. But be aware of UR self or those around U who may be thinking about stepping off that *ledge...

😊 Then don't hesitate to...
